

2021-2022 Studio Policies

(Effective August 2021)

1. SCHEDULING:

We offer young beginner piano students a single half-hour lesson each week. Older or more advanced students are offered the choice of either 45 minute or one hour lessons each week.

During the school year, families may choose to register students by the semester (Enrolled) or by the lesson (A la Carte). Enrolled students will receive priority scheduling (first choice of repeating lesson times throughout the school year). A la Carte students will be offered lessons during those time slots that remain. All summer lessons are scheduled and billed A la Carte. See Tuition below for rates and payment options.

All students who study with Brian or Jeannie must have an acoustic piano for daily practice.

2. CANCELLATION:

Students are expected to notify us when canceling a lesson. Make-up lessons, credit, and/or refunds are offered only when adequate notice is given per lesson make-up policies below.

Enrolled students who give at least 24 hours notice of cancellation will be offered a standby+make-up lesson, to occur within one week of the missed lesson (subject to availability). Standby lesson compatibility is not guaranteed. If a standby+lesson won't work, Enrolled students may choose to schedule a deferred make-up lesson at the end of each semester, so long as advance notice (minimum of one hour) was given. Enrolled students are entitled to one deferred make-up per semester. When less than 24-hours notice is given, Enrolled students may seek a deferred make-up only. Missed lessons with less than one hour's notice and/or no-shows will not be made up nor refunded.

A la Carte students who give at least one week's cancellation notice will be offered the choice of credit to their next month's tuition or a standby+make-up lesson to occur within one week of the missed lesson (subject to availability). A la Carte students do not qualify for a deferred make-up at the end of the semester. A la Carte students who provide less than a week's notice, but at least 24 hours notice of cancellation, will be offered a standby make-up only (subject to availability). A la Carte students must provide a minimum of 24 hours notice to qualify for this make-up lesson. No tuition credit nor refund will be given for lessons canceled with less than a week's notice. If less than 24 hours notice of cancellation is given, there will be no credit nor a standby make-up lesson.

3. PRACTICE:

Students are expected to practice their assigned pieces daily and have all written work completed before each week's lesson.

Environment: Students need daily access to a quality acoustic piano for their practice at home. Acoustic pianos need to be in tune (tuned annually at A-440 pitch) with all keys and pedals functioning correctly. The practice area should be quiet and free of distractions (i.e. computer, radio, television and/or video games) during practice time. If these items are located in the practice area, they should be turned off and remain unused during practice.

4. PARENTS:

Parents of young students (5 to 8 years old) are asked to observe and participate in all lessons. We also ask that these parents supervise their child's practice sessions daily to help establish good practice habits. Parents of older children with established independent practice habits should attend lessons occasionally and check in on their child's practice sessions regularly.

Any lesson observers should refrain from distracting the student during the lesson. With the exception of visits to the studio restroom, we ask that all lesson clients and their guests remain seated in the studio or on our front porch. Siblings are welcome to attend and observe lessons so long as they are directly supervised by a parent.

5. GROUP CLASSES:

We offer group classes for TMTA Theory Exam and/or World of Music Exam preparation. Participation in these classes is expected for all student who are qualified to participate. However, enrollment in the exams is optional. Fees for these classes and exams are charged separately from tuition.

Studio Recitals: Our studio hosts two class recitals each year. These include a Christmas Recital and a formal Spring Recital at the end of the school year. All students are required to attend and/or play at these events. Parents are asked to attend these recitals. We do not charge additional fees for these recitals nor their receptions.

6. TEXTBOOKS:

Beginning students will use a Lesson Book, Theory Book, Solo Book, and a standard note pad. Future supplemental books include a Recital Book, Hymn Book, Christmas Book, and/or a Repertoire Book. Families will be given at least one week's notice to purchase any needed books.

Some additional study materials, such as TMTA Theory Exams, and/or World of Music Curriculum, will be made available for purchase directly from our studio. Students must bring all currently assigned books to each lesson.

Alternating lessons will be calculated monthly and billed as A la Carte lessons. A la Carte students are eligible to participate in internal events only (lessons, recitals, and theory classes). Outside festivals and competitions require regular weekly lessons by students who wish to participate.

8. AUDITIONS:

Beginning students are informally interviewed. They do not need to play an audition. Transfer student candidates are auditioned to assess their skills and place them properly.

9. TERMINATION:

Students may terminate lessons anytime. However, 30 days notice of termination and payment of any unpaid lessons remaining are required.. Enrolled students may terminate and leave mid-semester, but will be converted to A la Carte status to calculate their tuition due for the 30 day notice period.

10. SUMMER LESSONS:

We offer but do not require summer lessons. Summer lessons are billed A la Carte by the month. Students are encouraged to take up to one month off from piano lessons in the summer. However, we do not recommend that any students take an entire summer off from piano lessons.

Siblings must be supervised by parents throughout the lesson and are expected to be quiet at all times. Families are welcome to visit the park just behind our home for recreation. However, children are to be supervised when playing outside..

Our studio is closed between the fall and spring semesters as well as the week of spring break. The specific dates of these closures will be published at the beginning of the school year. The studio is also closed Thanksgiving Day. For other holidays, lessons follow the regular schedule and require advance notice for students seeking a make-up lesson. Make-up lessons are not offered during any of the breaks nor at times when our studio is closed.
